

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF WEST VIRGINIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

v.

Criminal Action No. 1:14-cr-21-1

CLAUDE JONES, Defendant.

OPINION/ REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION
CONCERNING PLEA OF GUILTY IN FELONY CASE

This matter has been referred to the undersigned Magistrate Judge by the District Court for purposes of conducting proceedings pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11. Defendant, Claude Jones, in person and by counsel, Sean Logue, appeared before me on October 8, 2014. The Government appeared by Assistant United States Attorney Zelda Wesley. The Court determined that Defendant was prepared to enter a plea of “Guilty” to Count Twenty-Nine of the Indictment.

The Court proceeded with the Rule 11 proceeding by first placing Defendant under oath.

The Court inquired of Defendant whether he was a citizen of the United States. Defendant responded that he is a citizen. The undersigned asked Defendant whether he understood that if he were not a citizen of the United States, by pleading guilty to a felony charge he would be subject to deportation at the conclusion of any sentence; that he would be denied future entry into the United States; and that he would be denied citizenship if he ever applied for it. Defendant stated that he understood.

The Court determined that Defendant’s plea was pursuant to a written plea agreement, and asked the Government to tender the original to the Court. The Court asked counsel for the Government if the agreement was the sole agreement offered to Defendant. The Government responded that the parties had discussed a prior agreement under the original Indictment, but that such agreement had been rejected by Defendant. Counsel for Defendant agreed with the Government’s representation and stated that the instant agreement was more favorable to Defendant than the prior agreement. Counsel for Defendant also stated that he had discussed both agreements with Defendant. The Court asked counsel for the Government to summarize the written Plea Agreement. Defendant stated that the agreement as summarized by counsel for the Government was correct and complied with his understanding of the agreement. The Court ORDERED the written Plea Agreement filed.

The Court next inquired of Defendant concerning his understanding of his right to have an Article III Judge hear the entry of his guilty plea and his understanding of the difference between an Article III Judge and a Magistrate Judge. Defendant thereafter stated in open court that he voluntarily waived his right to have an Article III Judge hear his plea and voluntarily consented to the undersigned Magistrate Judge hearing his plea, and tendered to the Court a written Waiver of Article III Judge and Consent To Enter Guilty Plea Before Magistrate Judge, which waiver and consent was signed by Defendant and countersigned by Defendant's counsel and was concurred in by the signature of the Assistant United States Attorney appearing.

Upon consideration of the sworn testimony of Defendant, as well as the representations of his counsel and the representations of the Government, the Court finds that the oral and written waiver of Article III Judge and consent to enter guilty plea before a Magistrate Judge was freely and voluntarily given and the written waiver and consent was freely and voluntarily executed by Defendant, Claude Jones, only after having had his rights fully explained to him and having a full understanding of those rights through consultation with his counsel, as well as through questioning by the Court. The Court ORDERED the written Waiver and Consent to Enter Guilty Plea before a Magistrate Judge filed and made part of the record.

The undersigned then reviewed with Defendant Count Twenty-Nine of the Superseding Indictment and the elements the Government would have to prove, charging him with distribution of cocaine hydrochloride within 1,000 feet of a protected location, in violation of 21 U.S.C. §§ 841(a)(1), 841(b)(1)(C), and 860. The undersigned then reviewed with Defendant the statutory penalties applicable to an individual adjudicated guilty of the felony charges contained in Count Twenty-Nine of the Superseding Indictment, the impact of the sentencing guidelines on sentencing in general, and inquired of Defendant as to his competency to proceed with the plea hearing. From said review the undersigned Magistrate Judge determined Defendant understood the nature of the charges pending against him and understood the possible statutory maximum sentence which could be imposed upon his conviction or adjudication of guilty on Count Twenty-Nine was imprisonment for a term of not less than one (1) year and not more than forty (40) years; understood that a fine of not more than $2,000,000.00 could be imposed; understood that both fine and imprisonment could be imposed; understood he would be subject to a period of at least six (6) years of supervised release; and understood the Court would impose a special mandatory assessment of $100.00 for the felony conviction payable on or before the date of sentencing. Defendant also understood that his sentence could be increased if he had a prior firearm offense, violent felony conviction, or prior drug conviction. He also understood he might be required by the Court to pay the costs of his incarceration and supervised release.

The undersigned also reviewed with Defendant his waiver of appellate rights as follows:

Ct. I want to go back to your plea agreement. Do you understand, first of all, that you have a right to appeal your conviction and your sentence to the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals provided that you give 14 days of notice of your intent to appeal to the Fourth Circuit?

Def. Yes.

Ct. Do you understand that under paragraph 12 of your written plea agreement, if the District Judge gives you an actual sentence which is the same as or equal to a Guidelines calculated sentence with a base offense level of 28 or lower, then you give up your right to appeal that conviction and sentence to the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals?

Def. Yes.

Ct. I have no clue what your prior criminal history may be, but do you understand that a level 28 at a Criminal History I under the Guidelines calls for 78 to 97 months of imprisonment?

Def. Yes.

Ct. Under a Criminal History Category II, it calls for 87 to 108 months of imprisonment?

Def. Yes.

Ct. And under Category III, it calls for 108—I'm sorry—97 to 121 months of imprisonment?

Def. Yes.

Ct. And if you were a IV, or even a V or a VI, it calls for at a minimum 110 months and it goes all the way up to 175 months, that's level VI, do you understand that?

Def. Yes.

Ct. Did you intend to give up your right to appeal as set forth in paragraph 12 of your agreement?

Def. You said did I intend to?

Ct. Yes.

Def. I mean, do I have a choice?

Ct. Yes, Mr. Jones, you have a choice?

Def. I mean, if I plead guilty— do I have a choice to give up my right to appeal if I plead guilty?

Ct. If you plead guilty, and the Court accepts your written plea agreement, then you have given up your right to appeal if the Judge's sentence, the actual sentence she imposes, is the same as or equal to a Guidelines sentence with a base offense level of 28, that's what you agreed to...

Def. Yes.

Ct. And that's what's going to occur if you plead guilty and the Judge accepts your plea agreement.

Def. Yes.

Ct. You understand that?

Def. Yes.

Ct. And you're willing to do that?

Def. Yes.

Ct. And you understand fully that as a practical matter that means that if your actual sentence is the same as or equal to a 28 under the Guidelines—offense level 28—or lower, then if you do appeal, the Court of Appeals could throw your appeal out?

Def. Yes.

Ct. Do you understand fully, Mr. Jones, that when it says base offense level 28, that's the starting point? It can go up or down with adjustments after that?

Def. Yes.

Ct. So the language is all couched in the base offense level, not where it ends up, do you understand that?

Def. Yes.

From the foregoing colloquy the undersigned determined that Defendant understood his appellate rights and knowingly gave up those rights pursuant to the conditions contained in the written plea agreement.

The undersigned Magistrate Judge further examined Defendant relative to his knowledgeable and voluntary execution of the written plea bargain agreement, and determined the entry into said written plea bargain agreement was both knowledgeable and voluntary on the part of Defendant. The undersigned then inquired of Defendant regarding his understanding of the written plea agreement. Defendant stated he understood the terms of the written plea agreement and also stated that it contained the whole of his agreement with the Government and no promises or representations were made to him by the Government other than those terms contained in the written plea agreement.

The undersigned Magistrate Judge further inquired of Defendant, his counsel, and the Government as to the non-binding recommendations and stipulation contained in the written plea bargain agreement and determined that Defendant understood, with respect to the plea bargain agreement and to Defendant's entry of a plea of guilty to the felony charge contained in Count Twenty-Nine of the Superseding Indictment, the undersigned Magistrate Judge would write the subject Report and Recommendation and would further order a pre-sentence investigation report be prepared by the probation officer attending the District Court. The undersigned advised the Defendant that the District Judge would adjudicate the Defendant guilty of the felony charged under Count Twenty-Nine of the Superseding Indictment. Only after the District Court had an opportunity to review the pre-sentence investigation report, would the District Court make a determination as to whether to accept or reject any recommendation or stipulation contained within the plea agreement or pre-sentence report. The undersigned reiterated to the Defendant that the District Judge may not agree with the recommendations or stipulation contained in the written agreement. The undersigned Magistrate Judge further advised Defendant, in accord with Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11, that in the event the District Court Judge refused to follow the non-binding recommendations or stipulation contained in the written plea agreement and/or sentenced him to a sentence which was different from that which he expected, he would not be permitted to withdraw his guilty plea. Defendant and his counsel each acknowledged their understanding and Defendant maintained his desire to have his plea of guilty accepted.

Defendant also understood that his actual sentence could not be calculated until after a pre-sentence report was prepared and a sentencing hearing conducted. The undersigned also advised, and Defendant stated that he understood, that the Sentencing Guidelines are no longer mandatory, and that, even if the District Judge did not follow the Sentencing Guidelines or sentenced him to a higher sentence than he expected, he would not have a right to withdraw his guilty plea. Defendant further stated his attorney showed him how the advisory guideline chart worked but did not promise him any specific sentence at the time of sentencing. Defendant stated that he understood his attorney could not predict or promise him what actual sentence he would receive from the sentencing judge at the sentencing hearing. Defendant further understood there was no parole in the federal system, although he may be able to earn institutional good time, and that good time was not controlled by the Court, but by the Federal Bureau of Prisons.

The Court heard the testimony of Sergeant Doug Yost of the Fairmont Police Department, who is currently assigned to the Three Rivers Drug and Violent Crimes Task Force. Prior to January 28, 2014, Defendant had fronted quantities of cocaine to a confidential informant (“CI”). On January 28, 2014, the CI arranged to meet with Defendant to pay for those drugs and to obtain more cocaine and heroin. Officers drove the CI to 603 Ogden Avenue, Fairmont, West Virginia, in an undercover vehicle. That address was where Defendant was known to reside. Defendant was in his vehicle in front of the residence; the CI met with Defendant outside his vehicle. The CI paid for the previously provided drugs and acquired a quantity of cocaine from Defendant. The cocaine field-tested positive. The transaction occurred within 1,000 feet of Willow Ridge, a public housing complex managed by the public housing authority. All of Defendant’s activity occurred within the Northern District of West Virginia.

Defendant stated he heard, understood, and did not disagree with Sergeant Yost's testimony. The undersigned United States Magistrate Judge concludes the offense charged in Count Twenty-Nine of the Superseding Indictment are supported by an independent basis in fact concerning each of the essential elements of such offense. That independent basis is provided by Sergeant Yost's testimony.

Thereupon, Defendant, Claude Jones, with the consent of his counsel, Sean Logue, proceeded to enter a verbal plea of GUILTY to the felony charge in Count Twenty-Nine of the Superseding Indictment.

Upon consideration of all of the above, the undersigned Magistrate Judge finds that Defendant is fully competent and capable of entering an informed plea; Defendant is aware of and understood his right to have an Article III Judge hear and accept his plea and elected to voluntarily consent to the undersigned United States Magistrate Judge hearing his plea; Defendant understood the charges against him, not only as to the Superseding Indictment as a whole, but in particular as to Count Twenty-Nine of the Superseding Indictment; Defendant understood the consequences of his plea of guilty, in particular the maximum statutory penalty to which he would be exposed for Count Twenty-Nine; Defendant made a knowing and voluntary plea of guilty to Count Twenty-Nine of the Superseding Indictment; and Defendant's plea is independently supported by Sergeant Yost's testimony which provides, beyond a reasonable doubt, proof of each of the essential elements of the charges to which Defendant has pled guilty.

The undersigned Magistrate Judge therefore recommends Defendant's plea of guilty to Count Twenty-Nine of the Superseding Indictment herein be accepted conditioned upon the Court's receipt and review of this Report and Recommendation.

The undersigned further directs that a pre-sentence investigation report be prepared by the adult probation officer assigned to this case.

Defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal Service pending further proceedings in this matter.

Any party may, within fourteen (14) days after being served with a copy of this Report and Recommendation, file with the Clerk of the Court written objections identifying the portions of the Report and Recommendation to which objection is made, and the basis for such objection. A copy of such objections should also be submitted to the Honorable Irene M. Keeley, United States District Judge. Failure to timely file objections to the Report and Recommendation set forth above will result in waiver of the right to appeal from a judgment of this Court based upon such report and recommendation. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); United States v. Schronce, 727 F.2d 91 (4th Cir. 1984), cert. denied, 467 U.S. 1208 (1984); Wright v. Collins, 766 F.2d 841 (4th Cir. 1985); Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140 (1985).

The Clerk of the Court is directed to send a copy of this Report and Recommendation to counsel of record.

Respectfully submitted this 9th day of October, 2014.

John S. Kaull

JOHN S. KAULL
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE